this important book addresses one of the failed tactics of those who seek to sow doubt in order to push the upcoming generation away from islam by saying if allah existed justice would prevail throughout the world because allah is just but where is this justice when we see innocent people suffering and criminals living in luxury this book contains a scientific answer to this question and shows the reader how this tactic always fails as long as a person is adorned with objective thought and a free intellect the second volume of imam al buti's pinnacle papers most muslims today are turning their attention towards analyzing islam and trying to present the true state of the muslims but they only look at outward actions and statements these deeds and statements are nothing but the upper floors of islam's building they cannot be strengthened nor consolidated unless they are relying on that humble hidden part of the building known as the foundations these foundations are established in the heart so how can the foundations of islam's building be established therein how can a connection be made between the foundations of this building and its upper floors such that the muslims can guarantee that it will not be blown away by the wind or rocked by a storm and that it will not be inundated by the forces of tyranny and base desires the mission of this book is to answer these questions and reveal the ways to make this connection between one's islamic life inside the heart and one's islamic life as manifested via one's limbs and organs two timely essays by imam al būṭī on language dialogue and the qur'ān in this powerful and timely volume imam muhammad said ramadan al buti one of the foremost scholars of our time presents two profound essays on the qur'ān's guidance concerning speech dialogue and the preservation of language the first essay the etiquette of dialogue in allah s book explores how the quran instructs believers to engage in respectful wise and principled dialogue drawing directly from quran verses imam al buti demonstrates that the believer s approach to discussion whether with fellow muslims or with those who reject faith must be rooted in clarity logic compassion and ethical integrity far from encouraging polemics or verbal conquest the quran lays out a framework for inviting others to the truth with sincerity and dignity the second essay preserving the arabic language and its literature is a stirring defence of the arabic language and its central role in the life of the muslim ummah imam al buti exposes the ideological agendas both historical and modern colonial and internal that have sought to weaken or displace arabic arguing that such efforts threaten the ummah s direct connection to the quran and thus by extension their relationship with allah himself both essays are presented with fully vocalised arabic text alongside precise english translations offering timeless guidance for seekers of knowledge arabic students educators those engaged in da'wah and all who are committed to preserving the integrity of islam deeply rooted in love for allah his book and the language in which it was revealed this volume is a call to reflection revival and action the problems of the youth are not problems that are connected to them insomuch as they are problems of the community that they live in sticking them to the youth is to accuse the innocent and to exonerate the guilty to charge them with the responsibility of rising above these problems while their communities remain as they are is a very strange kind of futile behaviour how can that be and what is the solution the answer is found in the pages of this book the biographies of the elite lives of the scholars imams hadith masters

the terms coexistence partnership citizenship and globalization all have a profound impact on today s decision makers and their policy formation as well as on individuals while these terms have been widely used all over the world particularly in the west in the construction of identity they have been considered unworthy of a detailed analysis in the context of muslim identity some scholars argue that muslim christian relations are caught between advocates of homogenization on the one hand and supporters of self affirmation on the other while the former concept favours relativism the latter is seen to encourage fanaticism in addition such scholars claim that the tension between muslims and christians is due to a complex history of rivalry and war which has led to the issue of muslims positive coexistence being elucidated from historical and sociological points of view given the paucity of literature regarding a faith based study of muslim coexistence this book elaborates on the theological aspect of muslims coexistence in non muslim lands and raises a number of theological questions arguments and counter arguments pertinent to this issue is it permissible for muslims to live in a non muslim country is it permissible for muslims to acquire non muslim citizenship what are the obstacles how do muslims perceive civic duties in non muslim countries are muslims obliged to fulfil them the book presents a number of scholarly discussions from past and contemporary sources as well as international human rights treaties which stress the significance of the much overlooked factor of context this volume examines the writings of ten muslim intellectuals working in the muslim world and the west who employ contemporary critical methods to understand the qur an their work points to a new trend in muslim interpretation characterised by a direct engagement with the word of god while embracing intellectual modernity in a global context the volume situates and evaluates their work and responses to it among muslim and non muslim audiences this text presents the ideas of a number of contemporary modernist and liberal muslim thinkers exposing an important intellectual current in islamic thought these figures work mainly outside established institutional political and religious frameworks whilst relying heavily on traditional sources responding to the challenges brought by colonialism and modernization they propose new conceptions and interpretations of islam consonant with the age although their specific concerns and emphases vary their thought shares certain features a reconsideration of the relation between religion and politics an easy incorporation of modern western ideas a reinterpretation of sacred sources which highlights their more universalist elements and a conception of islam as moving with historical change whilst remaining rooted in qur anic values disputing the widespread view of modern islam as essentially political the book shows a quite different face of the tradition this collective volume provides an integrative historical and contemporary discussion of sunni eulamae3 4 in the middle east in both an urban and a semi tribal context the various chapters reinforce a renewed interest in the position of the eulamae3 4 in modern times and offer new insights as to their ideological vitality and contribution to the public discourse on moral and sociopolitical issues this work critically explores gender biased discourse within islamic jurisprudence it also elucidates matters seldom discussed in the qu ran and proposes a way out from the current methodological deadlock regarding women s position in islam contemporary studies on syria assume that the country's ba thist regime has been effective in subduing its islamic opposition placing syria at odds with the middle east's larger trends of rising islamic activism and the eclipse of secular ideologies as the primary source of political activism yet this assumption founders when confronted with the clear resurgence in islamic militantism in the country since 2004 this book examines syria's current political reality as regards its islamic movement describing the country's present day islamic groups particularly their social profile and ideology and offering an explanation of their resurgence the analysis focuses on who are today's syrian islamic groups why and how are they re emerging after 22 years of relative silence as an important socio economic and political force how is the syrian state dealing with their re emergence in light of syria's secularism and ideologically diverse society bridging area studies islamic studies and political science this book will be an important reference for those working within the fields of comparative politics political economy and middle eastern studies
