amid what has become known as the invasion the world is in disarray war is everywhere shrouded by the creatures that now swarm over the planet killing people with a single bite which is why when a young man is found covered in blood outside the door to a ukrainian hospital he didn't garner much attention with no memory of who he is or whose blood is covering him he is given the name of jan kowalski and locked away in the hospital waiting for safety waiting for his identity to return the more he waits however the more confusing he becomes from the heart that beats inside his chest the heart that is not his despite there being no evidence of surgery from the way he doesn't age even though he slips in and out of coma's for more than ten years from the broken fragments of memories that torment him and the woman that haunts his dreams every night to the man who sneaks into the hospital to kill him to the governments that want him nothing is right not even when the truth finally became clear and his name becomes ilyan krul once more they found me when i was five a little girl sitting on a bench in grand central station soaking wet asking about the rain i remembered nothing about how i got there or who my parents were i couldn t even remember my name i was tagged labeled and doomed to cycle through state care for the next twelve years moving from one family to another they all rejected me as the dreams began to come the memories began to return and things around me began to explode now my mind is full of a world of shadows things that my heart pleads with me to be true that i hope are only fantasy that the disturbing past i see is not mine when i sleep i hear whispers of magic and of evil queens and a world that exists alongside our own things that could never be but there is one thing i know to be true that there was a boy who was torn from me a boy that i know means more to me than a brother or than a lover but what he is to me i am not sure i hear him cry for me in my dreams i hear people call him the catalyst i know i need to find him i wouldn t have tried if i would have known that finding river would have made all my dreams turn into a haunting reality
