an inquiry made to obtain any information is known as an interrogation while asking the person tries to get an answer that allows him to satisfy his doubts the interviewers often ask simple questions in a very twisted fashion to confuse the candidates difficult questions answers reflect the knowledge of the giver as well as his overall personality for example which is heavier a kilogram of feathers or 1000 grams of lead solution both the weights are equal and what happened in kolkata yesterday from 8 to 9 o clock solution an hour had passed these questions have a trick because they are framed in such a way that the answers seem simple but in reality they are not it can be said that the questioners confuse the candidates as they hide their answers using rhetorical resources and various devices in some cases the answer is found in the question itself but in secret tricky questions are also used for fun or as a mental activity of logical practice like a truck driver passing down a street in the wrong direction some policemen saw him but they didn't say anything to him why solution because the truck driver was on foot he shaves all day but still has a beard who is he solution barber some months have thirty days and others thirty one but how many months have twenty eight solution every month has at least twenty eight days which object becomes wet when it dries solution towel how do you draw a square with three lines solution draw the square first and then draw three lines inside the square thus an answer to a tricky question can lead to confusion due to the confusion generated question these types of questions are very specific to the areas in which people's knowledge or behavior is evaluated generally such difficult questions can be perceived as misleading or incorrect because something is being implied that is not in reality however they can also be seen as methods whose precise purpose is to test the candidate and determine whether he or she is fully capable of answering the question that he or she is saying i know in this way about five thousand questions and answers have been given in the present book which is equally useful for all competitive examinations the roman de la rose was a major bestseller largely due to its robust treatment of natural sexuality this study concentrates on the ways in which jean de meun in imitation of ovid assumed the mock magisterium or mastership of love from latin texts and literary theory jean derived many hermeneutic rationales and generic categorizations without allowing any one to dominate alastair j minnis considers allegorical versus literalistic expression in the poem its competing discourses of allegorical covering and satiric stripping jean s provocative use of plain and sometimes obscene language in a widely accessible french work the challenge of its homosocial and perhaps even homoerotic constructions the subversive effects of coital comedy within a text characterized by intermittent aspirations to moral and scientific truth and placing the rose s reception within the european history of vernacular hermeneutics the problematic translation of literary authority from latin into the vulgar tongue offering an examination of the paragone meaning artistic rivalry in nineteenth century france and england this book considers how artists were impacted by prevailing aesthetic theories or institutional and cultural paradigms to compete in the art world the paragone has been considered primarily in the context of renaissance art history but in this book readers will see how the legacy of this humanistic competitive model survived into the late nineteenth century this volume gathers together about two thirds of the articles and essays published between 1983 and 2021 by philip hardie whose work on ancient literature has been of seminal importance in the field the centre of gravity lies in late republican and augustan poetry in particular lucretius virgil and ovid with important contributions on wider augustan culture on neronian and flavian epic on the latin poetry of late antiquity and on the reception of latin poetry designed as an introduction to classical mythology for middle and high school students presents retellings of favorite myths sidebar summaries and review exercises with the answers at the back of the book
