examines crochet's three basic variables: hook, yarn, and stitch, and how their infinite combinations create distinctive fabrics. Dozens of swatches show which techniques will result in a structured, hardwearing fabric or a lacy one that drapes. How a yarn can either hide or show off stitch patterns, and which crochet patterns can mimic plaid or colorful African designs. Fifteen projects move readers from theory into practice.

You're no idiot. Of course you can sew a button, tie a knot, and even thread a needle in under 30 seconds. But when it comes to knitting and crocheting, you feel as prickly as a pin cushion. Don't unravel just yet! The Complete Idiot's Guide to Knitting and Crocheting shows you how to create beautiful crafts worthy of becoming heirlooms.

These knitted and crocheted fashion accessories and decorative accents for the home vary in their required levels of skill, but all can be completed quickly and require only one skein of yarn. The stitch patterns and clear instructions make it easy for even procrastinators and the less-than-diligent to create a ruffled cravat, a drawstring bag, a tank top, cozy scarves, arm and leg warmers, lace wristlets, fingerless gloves, a mohair pillow, and even a sweater for a baby. Several projects do not require any new yarn at all! Instead, projects such as the felted striped tote or the labyrinth circle rug are designed using up a skein's worth of leftovers from other projects. A guide to terms and techniques, a resource directory, and a bibliography are also included.

I started crocheting when I was a teenager because my grandmother did. Her work was so beautiful, and I wanted to create something just as beautiful. My mother taught me how to sew and read a pattern, so I knew the combination would help me design anything. My first garment was a sweater with a shell stitch design. It took me about 3-6 months to finish, so that was my last crochet project for 15 years. When I became a hairstylist, I had days when it was a little quieter, so instead of putting around cleaning everything over and over, I decided to take up crocheting again. This time I found a book called How to Crochet by Pauline Turner. I learned a few new stitches and decided to start with an afghan. I got bored and put it in a bag in the closet. I finished it about 4 years later. I decided to make a halter top. After all, it was summer. I decided to design it myself like I always did. I like to have a one of a kind outfit that suits my personality i actually finished it in a couple days it was the best feeling in the world i wore it to work the next day and sold it to one of the girls that came in the shop she offered me too much money to say no a couple days later another girl came in the shop and asked me if i made crochet bathing suits she was a friend of the girl who bought my halter i told her that i hadnt made one before but ill give it a try she ended up ordering 2 bathing suits thanks nicole for inspiring me to try designing something new thats where my interest in designing crochet clothing began if youre like me you get bored easy you like to complete projects in a reasonable amount of time and you enjoy the satisfaction you get from creating a project on your own then this book may be the one for you i decided to change the way i did my pattern layout so reading it would be easier it seemed too confusing to read any other pattern eg repeat r4 8 4 more xs then alternate r2 and 3 till pattern measures 14 so i decided to make it simple to read and to check off each row as i finished it so i wouldnt lose my spot in the pattern
