a description of the current global food system this book challenges our ethical responsibility to the global poor and implicates us all for failing to curb global hunger and malnutrition the politics of food the global conflict between food security and food sovereignty argues that our current global food system constitutes a massive violation of human rights in this impassioned well researched book william schanbacher makes the case that the food security model for combating global hunger driven by the united nations the world bank the international monetary fund and other organizations is a failure too dependent on trade and too reliant on international agribusiness instead the emerging model of food sovereignty helping local farmers and businesses produce better quality food is the more effective and responsible approach through numerous case studies the book examines critical issues of global trade and corporate monopolization of the food industry while examining the emerging social justice movements that seek to make food sovereignty the model for battling hunger

this collection of satirical sketches takes readers on a sometimes cynical sometimes hilarious trip through many of the issues that face democratic south africa the seed of this collection was sown in 2007 when south africa won the right to host the 2010 fifa world cup the debate about huge amounts of public funds being spent on a vanity project instead of being used to improve the lives of the majority of the country s citizens inspired mike van graan one of south africa s leading contemporary political playwrights to use sport as an entry point for satirical commentary van graan follows this with piercing attention towards matters of the state with themes ranging from the world cup to the political football of land from the violent abuse of women to state capture this selection of satirical sketches takes readers on a rollercoaster trip through many of the issues that face democratic south africa the sketches come from six one person revues bafana republic 2007 bafana republic extra time 2008 bafana republic penalty shootout 2009 pay back the curry 2016 state fracture 2017 and land acts 2018 van graan uses a potent mix of comedy poetry and drama to make points that hit hard at core issues which 21st century south africans are struggling with readers will laugh and cringe and sometimes cry but one thing they will not be able to do is remain unaffected
