duncan williamson was the son grandson and great grandson of nomadic tinsmiths basket makers pipers and storytellers in this book he describes his life as a traveller with verve candour and intimacy recounting a childhood spent on the shores of loch fyne work on the small hill farms in the summer walking with barrows and prams and later with horse and cart the length and breadth of scotland he recalls camping with hundreds of traveller families from the 1940s to the 1960s his marriage to his cousin jeanie townsley and all the various traditional skills and arts which must be perfected for a man to maintain his family adequately the horsieman is the story of traditions long vanished of traveller trades of building tents of routes travelled and traditional camping sites of stories songs music and cures which have been the heritage and tradition of travelling people in scotland through the ages set mainly in argyll tayside and all stations in between duncan williamson s story is told with great warmth and humour and in the inimitable style of one scotland s master storytellers the travelling people of scotland are the traditionally nomadic minority group known also by the derogatory term tinkers traveling in groups or in their individual caravans along the high roads and byways of scotland they have established a distinct identity and mode of life for themselves that preserves centuries old cultural beliefs for their skill as storytellers as well as ballad singers they are internationally recognized for the richest storytelling traditions of the world one of their best known storytellers is duncan williamson he was fascinated by storytelling from an early age and dedicated himself to keeping the wisdom of traveller culture by learning as many stories as possible while this book focuses on a number of individuals both duncan s skill as a storyteller and his extensive knowledge of traveller storytelling traditions are prominently featured through a series of performance transcriptions and interview excerpts although their oral tales have been compiled and collected in other volumes this book is the only full length study that analyzes the stories of the travelling people through an examination of their words narratives and songs it brings readers close to travellers own voices and to their distinctive practice of storytelling indeed this analytical appreciation of the culture shows how the story performances preserve the history of the travelling people and reveal the shape and substance of the storytellers own lives it renders too the rich variety of stories the interrelationship of stories and the community the construction of the teller s identity within the story and the story s way of understanding and shaping human experience although concentrated on these scottish storytellers this book imparts insights into the process of storytelling in general and contributes understanding of the place of stories in human communities and to human identity donald braid assistant director of the center for citizenship and community and a lecturer in english at butler university in indianapolis indiana is a co editor of a folklorist s progress reflections of a scholar s life his work has been published in the journal of american folklore text and performance quarterly and the encyclopedia of folklore and literature this book unravels the complexities of traditional storytelling and uses creative analytical techniques to uncover the meanings of the stories we tell the reader is first acquainted with conceptualisations of how stories make meaning in our lives then guided through a selection of stories from the rich traditions of scotland s traveller and nawken nacken communities beginning with a nuanced historical overview of the communities traveller storytelling in scotland folklore ideology and cultural identity then draws on archives texts and interviews to introduce readers to the unique and vibrant folklore of scotland s travellers and nawken nacken it connects ethnology and literary criticism to contextualise folklore and reveal how its ideological priorities underpin cultural identity utilising diverse analytical techniques this book is a timely examination of a folkloric idiom that has until now been sorely in need of further scrutiny it showcases the sophistication and enduring relevance of folkloric expressions to contemporary scottish culture who made modern britain this book drawn from the award winning oxford dictionary of national biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life following on from the oxford dnb s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine many are closely connected to specific periods in britain s recent history from the 1950s the young harold pinter or the yorkshire cricketer fred trueman for example from the sixties the footballer george best photographer patrick lichfield and the pink floyd musician syd barrett it s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of edward heath and james callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly freddie laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians ronnie barker and dave allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms a decade later you probably browsed in anita roddick s body shop or danced to the music of factory records established by the manchester entrepreneur tony wilson in the 1990s you may have hoped that things can only get better with a new labour government which included robin cook and mo mowlam many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause bill deedes or conor cruise o brien in journalism ned sherrin in broadcasting or indeed ted heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist richard doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer cicely saunders creator of the hospice movement and chad varah founder of the samaritans with john profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman malcolm fewtrell who investigated the great train robbery or the russian dissident aleksandr litvinenko who was killed in london in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades mastermind with magnus magnusson the pg tips chimpanzees trained by molly badham john delorean s gull wing car or the new british library designed by colin st john wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts oxford dnb biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person s life story authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field here you will find michael billington on harold pinter michael crick on george best richard davenport hines on anita roddick brenda hale on rose heilbron roy hattersley on james callaghan simon heffer on john profumo douglas hurd on edward heath alex jennings on paul scofield hermione lee on pat kavanagh geoffrey wheatcroft on conor cruise o brien and peregrine worsthorne on bill deedes many in this volume are naturally household names but a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines what in the 1980s became thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from ralph harris and alfred sherman children who learned to read with ladybird books must thank their creator douglas keen while without its first producer verity lambert there would have been no doctor who others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts take for instance arthur bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory awarded the george cross and the george medal bywater remains the only non combatant to have received britain s two highest awards for civilian bravery
