harper wright s world is falling apart yet her life is just beginning she s being forced to lead when all she really wants is to live then her life takes a turn two savage men enter her life claiming to love and support her one is handsome sexy and everything that she has ever needed to fill that empty space in her life the other is handsome hot and mysterious she soon finds herself wondering how anyone could expect her to choose between the two when her heart was made only for one of them ian is fierce and up for the challenge of being the man by harper s side there s only one problem israel who claims to be just as in love with harper as he is ian finds himself wondering what he has to offer that can trump the dark israel and his powers of persuasion harper finds herself caught in the middle of a love triangle between ian and israel and knows that nothing good can come of it no matter who she chooses the other will want to fight to the death for her hand towards a final story is the first history of the modern scientific epic these epic stories pull together our knowledge of the universe uniting material and biological origins from beginning to end the authors of these epics among them carl sagan e o wilson and steven weinberg saw their task as providing an integrated schema that would not only bring together but also go beyond the particular scientific results and disciplines available as they wrote their histories nasser zakariya traces how such epic stories could achieve what they claimed how they inhabit culture and politics and how they arrived at the present moment from a period in the previous century when inquiries into ultimate origins were regarded by many as unscientific and unanswerable these prominent popular historical narratives of science are important forms of knowledge in their own right they expose what science means in the wider culture and at the same time focus attention on the near paradoxical nature of a universal history narrated by humanity for humanity
