nicole r fleetwood explores how blackness is seen as a troubling presence in the field of vision and the black body is persistently seen as a problem she examines a wide range of materials from visual and media art documentary photography theatre performance and more this book argues that new comedy has a far richer performance texture than has previously been recognised offering close readings of all the major plays of menander it shows how intertextuality the sustained dialogue of new comedy performance with the diverse ideological philosophical literary and theatrical discourses of contemporary polis culture is crucial in creating semantic depth and thus offsetting the impression that the plots are simplistic love stories with no political or ideological resonances it also explores how the visual aspect of the plays opsis is just as important as any verbal means of signification a phenomenon termed intervisuality examining in particular depth the ways in which the mask can infuse various systems of reference into the play masks like the panchrēstos neaniskos the all perfect youth for example are now full of meaning thus with their ideologically marked physiognomies they can be strong instigators of literary and cultural allusion this collection reflects not only the multidisciplinary nature of current thinking about performance but also the complex and contested nature of the concept itself this volume was first published by inter disciplinary press in 2016 theatre and the many varied expressions of performance practice in live and mediated performance forms are by their nature inter disciplinary the goal of this volume is to develop discussion with a focus on the visual aspects of performance brought up by artists and researchers in various performance disciplines and practices the volume facilitates inter personal communication and the exchange of global perspectives to engage a community in meaningful dialogue scenography describes the discipline of performing arts which include all elements of theatrical presentation as a definition here it is useful for this volume because it outlines the understanding of scenographic practice as a combination of numerous theatre practices that collaborate and include architecture lighting costume make up sound settings and stage properties movement as well as audience participation the introduction of artificial lighting extends the time of wakefulness after dark and enables work at night thus disturbing the human circadian rhythm the understanding of the physiological mechanisms of visual and non visual systems may be important for the development and use of proper light infrastructure and light interventions for different workplace settings especially for shift work conditions visual and non visual effects of light working environment and well being presents the impact of lighting in the working environment on human health well being and visual performance the physiological explanation of the visual and non visual effects of light on humans which discusses the biological bases of image and non image forming vision at the cellular level may be of particular interest to any professional in the field of medicine physiology and biology it is one of the intentions of this book to put forward some recommendations and examples of lighting design which take into account both the visual and non visual effects of light on humans these may be of particular interest to any professional in the field of lighting occupational safety and health and interior design what effects on health can a light overdose or light deficiency have what is bad light the authors of the monograph provide answers to these questions just as for a physicist the dual nature of light comprises an electromagnetic wave and a photon the duality of light for a physician comprises visual and non visual effects prof jacek przybylski medical university of warsaw this is a unique publication in the field of lighting technology the authors have skillfully combined both the technical and biomedical aspects involved which is unprecedented in the literature available as a result an important study has been created for many professional groups with a significant impact on the assessment of risks associated with led sources prof andrzej zaj c military university of technology warsaw
