Here's how they are adapted within the workbook: 1. We admitted we were powerless over others—and our lives had become unmanageable. This initial step encourages acknowledgment of the extent of one's codependency, recognizing patterns of enabling, over-involvement, or control. Exercises often include self-assessment checklists and personal reflection prompts to identify specific behaviors. 2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity. This step emphasizes developing faith—whether spiritual, emotional, or community-based—in the recovery process. The workbook may include activities to explore personal beliefs, cultivate hope, and define what a “Higher Power” means individually. 3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him. Fostering surrender, this step encourages participants to let go of their need to control others and accept guidance beyond their ego. Exercises may focus on trust-building, prayer, meditation, or other spiritual practices. 4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves. Self-examination is central here. The workbook provides structured inventories, prompts, and exercises to identify patterns of codependency, past wounds, and areas needing healing. 5. Admitted to ourselves and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs. Encouraging honesty and vulnerability, this step includes activities such as sharing in support groups or writing confidential disclosures, which foster accountability and compassion. 6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character. Participants explore willingness to change. Exercises focus on cultivating humility, openness, and readiness to let go of harmful traits. 7. Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings. This step involves prayer or meditation practices aimed at humility and acceptance. The workbook may guide users through specific prayers or affirmations. 8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends. This phase involves inventorying past harms and preparing for restitution. Activities include listing, reflection, and planning for making amends. 9. Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others. Action steps are outlined here, with guidance on how to approach amends with integrity. The workbook offers scripts, role-play exercises, and reflection prompts. 10. Continued to take personal inventory and when wrong promptly admitted it. A daily maintenance plan is emphasized, with exercises for ongoing self- monitoring. 11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God. Spiritual practices are reinforced, with suggested routines for meditation, Twelve Steps And Twelve Traditions Codependency Workbook 7 prayer, or mindfulness. 12.
