for fans of Nghi Vo's Pdjd Clark and Alix E. Harrow a new stand alone set in the world of the critically acclaimed murder and magic series during prohibition the improvisers is the tale of Velma a barnstorming pilot and former magic bootlegger who pursues dangerous enchanted items and a mystery that crosses the US and cuts through time right to the heart of her family's past and present Velma Frye is many things a pilot a former bootlegger a well seasoned traveler a jazz pianist and a wielder of celestial magic she's also a member of the mystical Rhodes family as well as an investigator for arcane oddities for a magic rights organization dealing with both simple and complicated cases and when a pocket watch instigates a magical brawl after one of her flights shows things become very complicated in 1930s America enchanted items are highly valuable especially in the waning days of the magical prohibition as Velma digs deeper she discovers the watch is part of a collection of dangerous artifacts manipulating people across the country and in some cases leading to their deaths something about all this is tickling Velma's memories and the more she discovers the more these seemingly isolated incidents feel as if they're building to something apocalyptic connecting the dots isn't easy though and further complicating her work is journalist Dillon Harris he hounds her steps and while not actively sabotaging her investigation he also clearly knows more than he lets on whether it s his presence that she finds so vexing or his easygoing charm that s a mystery she isn t interested in solving because someone is out there seeding cursed objects with the intent on wreaking havoc and velma will have to use every trick in her tool kit including some well placed magical improvisation to win the day focusing on a new generation of the rhodes family the improvisers brims with charming magic intriguing mystery and high flying adventure seeking new heights
